Dear AH HASSAN RAYON HUSSAIN,

Thank you for applying to the UMBC Graduate School. After a careful review of your application materials, we regret to inform you that your department has not recommended you for admission to the upcoming semester.

We receive applications from hundreds of students per semester; unfortunately, space is limited and we are only able to admit the most qualified students to each program. Departments consider both the student's qualifications and the suitability of their programs to the student's interests when making their decisions.

Any questions you may have about this decision should be addressed to the graduate program to which you applied.

I wish you success in your plans for graduate study and express my appreciation for your interest in UMBC.

Sincerely,
